Holyoke MA Infinity Real Estate Group, Inc. has leased 4,600 s/f of office space located at 220 Linden St. to Atlas Property Management, Inc., a rapidly growing, full service property management company. Randall Bernstein, leasing manager with Infinity Real Estate Group, Inc., represented Atlas Property Management, Inc. as the lessee.

"Due to ongoing growth, we have been looking for a new location in Holyoke to base our operations. This new location will not only meet our business needs but it also will allow us to restore the exterior of this house which will be a benefit to the neighborhood." said Ilya Shnyder, president of Atlas Property Management. "Randy listened to our needs and specifications. In a short amount of time, he was able to find this old Victorian House with which we are very pleased."

Mark Berezin, CCIM, president of Infinity Real Estate Group said, "Leasing is an important component of the services we provide at Infinity Real Estate Group, Inc. Among our goals as real estate professionals is to insure that our clients are confident we can assist them with their real estate needs. The personal and expert service Bernstein was able to provide to Atlas Property Management, Inc., is a good example of our continuing desire to meet our customers needs."
